

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A frame assembly for a window or patio door includes an integrally moulded unitary master frame having upper and lower horizontal members, opposed first and second vertical jamb members extending between the horizontal members, and a vertical mullion midway between the 5 first and second vertical jamb members. An integrally moulded unitary sash frame is slidably mounted within the master frame.